The Texas Alternatives Conference will take place March 9-10, hosted by the Texas Alternative Investment Association (TAIA) and the Managed Funds Association (MFA). Ahead of the conference's opening dinner, The Economic Club of Texas will host an informal Dutch happy hour open to all members and guests. It's not a formal "welcome group," but it is a relaxed opportunity for local members to connect with others coming to the Texas Alternatives Conference, introduce ourselves to out-of-state attendees, and start building relationships before the conference begins.
